Have you ever dreamed of a visit to Paris that included more than just great museums and puffy soufflés?

From the authors of Clued In Travel Books comes a lively new series that will give your next visit to Paris a real kick in the butt. From outdoor adventures to family fun, from unrivaled moments just for you to the rather darker side of the French capital, we've got you covered. And it's all new for 2022.

When you're looking to do things beyond the city's most important sights, try one of the sixty-five recommendations included in Bored in Paris. Plan something that you can really get excited about. Try wine tasting in a 17th century cellar or take a yoga class. Horseback ride through the gorgeous Bois de Boulogne or ride in the world's largest helium balloon. With this truly joyful guide book, you'll have all the info you need to do these things and more. Go blonde or get a tattoo while you're here. We aim to take your visit to the next level, from connecting with nature to learning new things; from local thrills and chills to experiences for the whole family to do together. And since we keep every type of budget in mind, our recommendations range from completely free to totally worth it. It's your choice.

And don't worry if you're actually a first time visitor to Paris... we won't tell. Grab this book and turn a potentially ordinary trip into something unique and memorable. It's our mission to make it impossible to ever be bored in Paris
