Are you ready for a new adventure? Just itching to get out of your house and hit the road? Do you love camping and seeing wide open spaces? Do you own an RV or want to rent one, but have no idea what you'll need for RV living? Maybe you already bought an RV but you don't know how to set it up to ensure a safe, comfortable trip. No worries: My book, 101+ Must-Have RV Accessories You NEED for the Road can give you the knowledge and inspiration to set out on your next adventure and avoid some of the common mishaps and pitfalls along the way. We discuss more than 150 RV accessories to make life easier.

My husband Fred and I will share our experience and walk you through everything you need to know, from safety equipment that you'll need (everything from First Aid Kits to Dashcams), practical things that will make your trip more enjoyable (like stove top oven kits and easy laundry tricks), and some comfort items that are available nowadays (for TV, wifi, and cell service). We'll look at setting up your space to get the most out of each section of the RV and low-cost safety equipment to keep things in place on the road. We even talk about steering with a trailer, reducing chucking, and safe driving tips with an RV.

More and more people are hitting the road in a camper these days, so you may find our section on how to ensure you get a spot useful. Also, we talk about free camping and those unwritten rules of the road.

You may be a veteran RVer or totally new to the scene. Whoever you are, and wherever you are on your RV journey—I believe there is something useful and interesting for you in this book.

Here is a quick look at some highlights, but please check out the preview and the Table of Contents, so you'll have a clear picture of what you'll be getting for your money.

"This book has a lot of information about an RV life for the elderly and doesn't seem to have left anything out. ... This is a good book for seniors who want to live on the road.
