Have you ever dreamed of a visit to Edinburgh that included more than just haunted pubs and old castles?

From the authors of Clued In Travel Books comes a lively new series that will give your next visit to Edinburgh a real kick in the butt. From outdoor adventures to family fun, from unrivaled moments just for you to the rather darker side of the Scottish capital, we've got you covered. And it's all new for 2022.

When you're looking to do things beyond the city's most important sights, try one of the sixty-one suggestions included in Bored in Edinburgh. Plan something that you can be really excited about. Try a gin jolly inside an actual distillery or join a yoga class. Book a Scottish pony ride for your kids, or take a helicopter tour over the Old Town. With this truly joyful guide book, you'll have all the info you need to do these things and more. Go blonde or get a tattoo while you're here. We aim to take your visit to the next level, from connecting with nature to learning new things; from local thrills and chills to experiences for the whole family to do together. And since we keep every type of budget in mind, our recommendations range from completely free to totally worth it. It's your choice.

And please don't worry if you're actually a first time visitor to Edinburgh... we won't tell. Grab this book and turn a potentially ordinary trip into something unique and memorable. It's our mission to make it impossible to ever be bored in Edinburgh!

Chapter listings include:

Try a Group Experience

(View things differently as part of a pack)
