

Color Him Father Lawrence Drake II - A Legend of Artistry

Grieving the loss of a child is a process. It begins on the day your child passes, and ends the day the parent joins them. - B.J. Farrer

Written from the experience of black fathers who have suffered the loss of an adult or teenage child, Dr. Drake brings the reader through the trauma, grief, and healing process surrounding not only the passing of his 41-year-old daughter, Kia Nichol Drake, but also stories shared by other courageous black fathers from around the country.
