Art and Homesteading in Scandinavia

In this book the author shares her autobiographic story of how the family moved into the middle of nowhere: a lonesome harbor in southern Denmark.

Lots of photographs and poems illustrate daily life to such a degree that it almost feels as if the reader is part of it.

A very beautiful and romantic book which also offers insight in the rough parts of an alternative lifestyle.

It's a breathtakingly beautiful journey through Scandinavia and into the self – which shows what an artist's life doing homeschooling and homesteading is like in reality.
