Read how a couple drove around United States spending just $10 a day, having fitted-out their Dodge van for sleeping in when they needed to.

This is the story of Don & Lyn Nicholson and their $10-A-Day vacation. They tell you EXACTLY how they did it, with costs, advice and fully legal shortcuts.

"My wife Lyn and I are rock'n'roll dancers. Actually, we're in our seventies, so younger people could do what we did with more ease and energy. But if WE can do it, anyone can."

What's that got to do with driving an RV motorhome across the U.S you ask?

Simple.

They use rock'n'roll dancing as their point of difference whenever they travel – whatever the country. It helps them travel cheaply and it helps them meet some marvellous people along the way.

But you can switch rock'n'roll for something YOU enjoy doing: stamp-collecting, scrap-booking, golf or telling stories or playing Scrabble or talking about how you grow beautiful red roses - whatever topic you like.

The point is to have something which YOU can talk about with enthusiasm, and perhaps demonstrate, as a bit of an expert when you meet people.

Their technique proves you can cut your travel costs to the absolute minimum, such as $10 a day. And you'll have a heap of fun.

I hope you read their story.

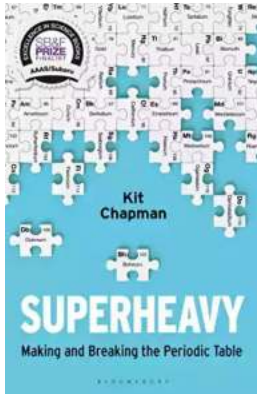

Maybe you'll do what they did. This book can be armchair travel, or a 'real people' guide to getting around US on the cheap.

Your choice.
