"Counting pennies and coupons. Lihosit has a keen eye (and) his descriptions are worth the book." Joanne Roll, Peace Corps Worldwide. The author and his wife had settled into a bohemian routine working minimum wage jobs, studying and rubbing elbows with actors, painters, musicians and writers. A sister in-law visits and unwittingly creates a whirlwind of change with a road trip - crossing America from coast to coast and returning by a more northern route via Canada. Running on empty from the outset, their struggles offer a unique vision.
