A delightful Amish Romance Box Set - 4 Christian stories of faith, hope and love.

Finding Amish

Abigail Bontrager is a herbalist like her grandmother. Some might even say she is a healer.

But old wounds of the heart open up when an old flame, Samuel Yoder, tries to lure her away from her fledgling marriage to Amos.

Abigail's search for answers and fresh herbs one day leaves her hopelessly lost, and in her absence certain members of the community complain about her foolish obsession with herbs. However, when an urgent need arises will they set aside their pride and ask for help?

Amish Embrace

Samuel Yoder wants to court and eventually marry Nancy King. Nancy's father, Abraham, forbids her to consider marrying anyone. Bitterness, over his wife's death, consumes him and makes life unbearable for family and friends. Add to Abe's devastated heart a terrible storm that destroys his property, and it appears nothing can penetrate his defences.

But when another catastrophe is averted by Nancy's quick thinking it shakes Abraham to the core.

Is it enough to melt his bitterness and open his heart to the possibility of his daughters happiness as a wife for Samuel?

Amish Seasons

After two years of grieving over his wife's sudden death Abraham King finally realizes he is lonely and doesn't want to spend the rest of his life alone.

Matchmaking attempts fall flat but God has a plan no one foresaw.

Rebecca Fisher is faced with an important decision after her husband dies, leaving her to run their sheep farm alone. Montana winters are long and harsh. Managing alone is not something Rebecca wants to consider. Moving back to Pennsylvania where winters are milder and family is near makes sense.

What Rebecca doesn't realize is that Gott has more than just milder weather to soothe her heart, He has a faithful man's heart waiting for an answer to his hopeful prayers.

Amish Mysterious Ways

Leah King barely hangs on after the tragic death of her beloved husband in a freak accident on the farm.

Nursing such a brokenness Leah cannot bring herself to share her grief with any one else - until an Englisher shows up at her door looking for work.

Though a few of her Amish community members are reluctant to approve of her choice of hired hand, the fact the Bishop approves helps assuage their misgivings. Jake Miller arrives on time every day for work and leaves without incident. The problem arises when Leah realizes she is falling in love with the Englisher. Unknowing to her, he is experiencing the same feelings for her. He decides it is time to tell her his life's story, or feels he must leave before it's too late.

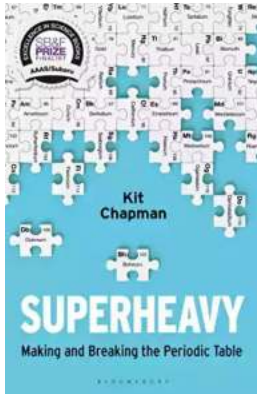

Once she hears his story, both are devastated and think there is no way they will ever be allowed to marry in the Amish church. Only a miracle will pave the way.

Leah reminds herself that God is known to act in mysterious ways and she and Jake pray for their miracle. Leah resolves to rid her mind of all doubt but wonders if this new love will come to fruition for her.
