"The city has fun parks! Do you want to play with me?"

Brand new readers can join a duck for a day out in an urban park. The words in this book are super easy to read for kids just learning to decode. Silly illustrations will have your child giggling as they read. A perfect choice as a first book for children who need to gain confidence reading independently and who are building a sight word vocabulary.

About the series:

Welcome to R.L. Margolin's Books for Beginner Readers series, here to help your new reader develop reading confidence and a love for literacy! This book is just right for children who have learned all of the letter sounds and are ready to begin sounding out simple words. It's a great place to begin building a sight word vocabulary, too. My promises to you:

- All the words used in the series are truly easy for your child to read.
- The stories make sense.
- Engaging illustrations help carry the story where words are few.
- Entertainment on every page will hold the attention of your young child.
- Seek and find challenge: Find Shindig Squirrel hiding in each scene!

Recommended for new readers ages 3-7.
