Quo Vadis, Aida?, Jasmila Zbanic's gut-wrenching film about the 1995 genocide in Srebrenica, the end-game of the Bosnian war, is this year's Bosnian entry for the foreign feature category of the Academy Awards. Directed by Zbanic and produced by her small independent company Deblokada, the film is set to compete against the film industry's favourite – Another Round, a Danish comedy-drama about male bonding, mid-life crisis, and binge-drinking. The contrast between the worlds that the two films inhabit and represent could not be greater. In the eyes of those of us who have lived through the horrors of the Bosnian war, Quo Vadis, Aida? is a masterpiece that truly deserves an Oscar. This book includes fun trivia, fun facts, and things you never know about the film. Let's discover now.
