Day 2: Get Inspired

To spark your creativity, spend a few hours browsing through wedding magazines, websites, and social media platforms. Create a digital mood board or a physical collage of wedding-related images, showcasing your desired color schemes, themes, and decor elements. Let these sources of inspiration guide your wedding planning journey.

Day 3: Budgeting

Now is the time to discuss your wedding budget. Sit down with your partner and determine how much you are willing to spend on your big day. Consider expenses for the venue, catering, photography, attire, decorations, and more. Remember to allocate a contingency fund for any unexpected expenses that may arise.

Day 4: Guest List

Creating a guest list can be tricky, but it's an essential step in the planning process. Think about the people who are truly important to you. Start with close family members and friends, and slowly expand the list based on priorities and available resources. Remember, it's your day, so invite people who will share in your joy and celebration.

Day 5: Selecting a Venue

Choosing the right venue sets the tone for your wedding. Consider your budget, wedding theme, and the number of guests when making this decision. Visit potential venues, ask questions, and envision how they will accommodate your dream wedding. Whether it's a garden, beach, castle, or a cozy hall, find a space that resonates with your vision.
