In the year 2000 the world was entering a new millennium and Hamish the West Highland Terrier, who came into our lives in 2001, was destined to become a Pets as Therapy dog for the next 15 years with the nickname of “The 4 Legged Medicine”.

Little did we know that this journey would result in many accolades taking us from the main arena at the world’s greatest dog show Crufts to winning the inaugural Daily Mirror Animal Hero Awards in the category of caring animal of the year and meeting many celebrities along the way.

There have been numerous newspaper articles written about Hamish during his lifetime with headlines stating, “Hamish just the tonic as he visits sick patients in Hospital” “wonder dog Hamish saves women in coma”, and “Hamish dishes out a different kind of medicine”

This feel good story told in words and photographs is a must read story for all animal lovers and sets out the extraordinary life that Hamish led over a sixteen year period.
