My journey began with two loyal Border Collies named Max and Bella. They became my trusted companions, always eager to explore the vast countryside with me. Their love and loyalty have brought endless joy to my life and have been instrumental in adapting to the rural lifestyle.

Additionally, I welcomed two mischievous cats, Charlie and Luna, who effortlessly navigate the farm and provide endless entertainment. They have a knack for finding the coziest spots on the property and enjoy basking in the sun, observing the world around them.

Lastly, my farm is home to several chickens and ducks. Not only do they provide fresh eggs daily, but their free-range lifestyle adds a sense of community and harmony to the surroundings.

The Daily Joys and Challenges

Living with animals in rural France is a constant adventure. From waking up to the soothing sounds of birds chirping to witnessing the playful interactions between my pets, every day is filled with joy and laughter.

However, it's important to acknowledge the challenges that come with caring for animals in this environment. Farm life demands commitment, as each animal requires specific care and attention. Whether it's grooming the dogs, cleaning the chicken coop, or ensuring everyone is fed, my days are dedicated to their well-being.

Yet, these challenges only strengthen the bond I have with my animal companions. The shared moments of triumphs and struggles create an unbreakable connection that brings tremendous warmth to my heart.

Exploring the Rural Paradise Together

Living in rural France also offers endless opportunities for exploration and adventure. My animal companions and I often embark on long hikes across the picturesque countryside, breathing in the fresh air and reveling in the beauty of nature.

Through our shared adventures, we've encountered stunning views, stumbled upon hidden gems of nature, and forged unforgettable memories. The freedom and simplicity of rural life allow my animals to thrive, making every outdoor escapade a thrilling experience.

The Unprecedented Bond

The bond I have with my animals transcends words. Their unwavering love and loyalty have transformed my life in unimaginable ways. They have taught me patience, responsibility, and the true meaning of companionship.

Every day, as I wake up to their happy faces and gentle purrs, I am reminded of the immense gratitude I have for the universe aligning to bring us together. My life in rural France would not be the same without the unconditional love and presence of my beloved animal companions.

The Enchanting

Living in rural France alongside my animal companions has been a dream come true. The connection with nature, the simplicity of life, and the overwhelming love from my pets have created a harmonious existence that I cherish with all my heart.

If you ever have the opportunity to embark on a similar journey, I wholeheartedly encourage you to embrace it. The bond you will form with animals in a rural setting is unlike anything else; it is a connection that will fill your soul with immeasurable joy and leave an indelible mark on your life.

The hilarious, poignant and sometimes bizarre stories of an extraordinary vet in rural France

Sylvain Balteau works as a village vet in the Pyrenees. Equally at home with a sick hamster as with a pregnant Charolais cow, he is permanently on call, immersed in the daily dramas of animals and their people.

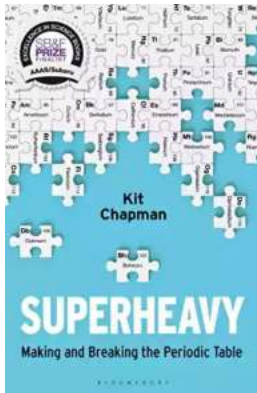

Since 2007 he has kept a blog, revealing the hidden side of a vet's work and the rich variety of French rural life. As well as caring for the usual puppies and elderly cats, he tries to save a man's pet piglet and patches up hunting dogs after the annual wild boar hunt. Then he can be found carrying a newborn calf into a remote farmhouse to warm up by the fire, or pleading with a farmer's wife on the verge of a heart attack who insists that the vet see her sick cow first ...

Through his work with their animals, Sylvain gains a privileged insight into the people who live with them. In this profound and unsentimental book, he discovers that, in order to love animals, you can't help but love people as well.
