When a strange fishing trawler anchors in the bay close to the settlement of Naalaarpoq, on Greenland's west coast, Constable David Maratse sends Kamiila Sorsuttartoq to observe it.

Only then, when he is convinced it isn't a trap, will he let her accept the invitation to board the trawler for an interview.

But to a young guerrilla warrior like Kamiila, the waiting game spells the death of the resistance movement, forcing her to seek creative ways to keep the momentum going.

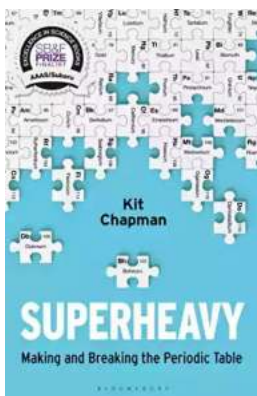

Radio Free Will is a short twenty-minute read plucked from Christoffer Petersen's Guerrilla Greenland series of speculative novellas.
