Shelly Blackwork Fillers Volume offers a refreshing take on traditional blackwork fillers by infusing them with the essence of marine life. The Dancing Dolphin Patterns instantly transport you to a serene underwater world, where dolphins gracefully dance amidst vibrant coral reefs.

Created using fine blackwork techniques, the patterns showcase the contrast between the black embroidery thread and the white fabric, resulting in a mesmerizing visual effect. The precise needlework brings the dolphins to life, as if they are gliding through the fabric with utmost elegance.

The Artistry Behind Shelly Blackwork Fillers Volume

Shelly, the talented artist behind these remarkable patterns, has devoted years to perfecting her craft. With a keen eye for detail and an immense passion for embroidery, she has successfully curated a collection that showcases her extraordinary talent and creativity.

Each pattern in the Dancing Dolphin Series has been carefully designed to be easily stitched by both beginners and experienced embroiderers. Shelly's intricate instructions and step-by-step diagrams ensure that even novice stitchers can create stunning blackwork pieces.

Moreover, the Dancing Dolphin Patterns are incredibly versatile, allowing embroiderers to use them in various projects. Whether you are embellishing a garment, creating a decorative wall hanging, or designing a unique gift, these patterns will add a touch of sophistication and charm to any creation.

This Volume is my second book in a series of filler designs, being filler numbers 51 to 100. I have created this book so that you may build your own library of filler designs to use within your own Blackwork creations and over time I hope to do a complete library of the following: Fillers, Borders, Corners, Alphabets, Patterns & Charts. I have included a sampler border pattern for FREE for you to complete, so that you can select 17 fillers of your choice to fill it up. A full view as well as the design split into 4 quarters is provided so that you can zoom in for a better view of each area. Happy Stitching
