1. Dennis Lillee's 8/29 demolition against England at Lord's in 1972

Dennis Lillee, one of the greatest fast bowlers of all time, put on a devastating display of pace and precision during the 1972 Ashes series. His spell of 8 wickets for only 29 runs, including taking 5 wickets in an incredible 27 balls, decimated the English batting lineup. Lillee's fiery pace and immaculate accuracy left the England batsmen clueless, earning him a place in cricketing folklore.

2. Muttiah Muralitharan's 'Murali-Wizardry' with 16/220 against England in 1998

Muttiah Muralitharan's magical spin bowling ability was on full display during the test series against England in 1998. The Sri Lankan spin maestro mesmerized the English batsmen with his unorthodox action and phenomenal spin control, taking a staggering 16 wickets for 220 runs. Muralitharan's spellbinding performance showcased the artistry of spin bowling and solidified his status as one of the greatest spinners the game has ever seen.

3. Wasim Akram's sensational all-round display against Zimbabwe in 1996

Wasim Akram, the Sultan of Swing, was known for his ability to swing the ball both ways at blistering pace. In the 1996 test match against Zimbabwe, Akram showcased his supreme bowling skills and incredible batting prowess. He single-handedly demolished the Zimbabwean batting lineup with a devastating spell of 6/16 in the first innings. Akram then gave a batting masterclass, scoring a quickfire century and finishing the match with figures of 11/110. This extraordinary all-round performance rightfully earns its place in the history books.

: Celebrating the Legends of Supreme Bowling

These 100 great test performances have showcased the immense talent, skill, and dedication of the bowlers who have graced the cricket pitch. From the fiery pacers to the crafty spinners, each performance exemplifies the art of supreme bowling and its ability to shape the outcome of a test match.
