A series of dark and mysterious events have disturbed Eva and Dante's hometown. The town's factory is taken over by an evil scientist. Strange mechanical men roam the streets at night. Parents begin to disappear. When twelve-year-old Dante's father is the next to go missing, Eva, thirteen, decides to help her friend discover what's been happening.

Their quest leads them to Corinthia, a gleaming city of towering buildings and underground passageways. Hopeful at first, the friends find that the city is controlled by powerful, feuding guilds. With the help of Ruel, a spy for the resourceful Sanitation Guild, they confront the sinister Mechanics Guild and discover the root of all their troubles. Before long, Eva, Dante, and their friends are in a race against time to rescue Dante's father and stop the Mechanics Guild.
