An artifact gone missing. A jungle full of clues. Can one cat detective save a national treasure?

Inca the Siberian Kitty can't wait to add Sri Lanka to the list of places she's explored. But before her paws touch the sandy beaches, she learns a local museum needs her crime-solving skills to track down a stolen ancient sword. With her trusty diary in tow, Inca leaps whisker-first down a trail of clues that leads her deep into the wild jungle.

After getting a little help from a baby elephant and her not-so-distant leopard cousins, she learns about the country's rich history and just how important it is to restore the sword to its rightful place. With her furry family and new friends by her side, Inca can feel she's close to getting her claws on the sword... but it'll take teamwork to save a priceless piece of history.

Serendipity Mystery is the 7th standalone children's book in the Diary of a Snoopy Cat series, which is purrfect for kids ages 7-12. If you and your child like new cultural experiences, animal detectives, and tales of teamwork, then you'll love R.F. Kristi's globetrotting adventures.
