Unearthing the History and Origins

The Mercy Tree's story begins in the distant past, shrouded in legend and myth. Ancient texts speak of a celestial event that occurred thousands of years ago, when a fallen star crashed into the earth, giving birth to a sacred tree. This divine phenomena, witnessed by only a handful of individuals, marked the birth of The Mercy Tree, forever altering the destiny of humankind.

Throughout the ages, The Mercy Tree has been revered by sages, mystics, and scholars alike. Its significance has been recorded in various scriptures and manuscripts across different cultures and continents. While its origins are rooted in the mystical, its purpose has always been to restore balance, compassion, and hope to a world plagued by darkness.

WELLINGTON KOLE, a genius and an office clerk at a botanist industrial company, change the course of his life when a strange case falls into his hands—Healing Soil.

Even though Wellington hopes to become a scientist and to discover a plant species that treats all diseases, the case forces him to choose between his family and career.

Meanwhile, as a world epidemic grows bigger and brighter throughout the globe, and top-secret government leaders encourage Wellington to focus on the case, an old childhood friend, turned enemy, conspires to expose Wellington family's secret.

Luckily, Wellington's Christian upbringing causes him to lean on his family for refuge when he discovers that the 'healing soil' case is more than a medical phenomenon, but a part of a selfish secret that he hides deep inside of his heart.

As the epidemic becomes more alarming, Wellington must decide to reveal everything that he knows about the case or protect the one thing that may save the world and his family.
