In 2019 I felt called to go to Uganda to visit the orphanage that my church supported. Most church members and friends probably thought I'd lost my mind. However, my husband was supportive and I made the decision to go. I felt like a forcefield of protection was around me the entire time I was there. The trip from beginning to end was affirmed in ways I cannot explain. I had and have no doubt to this day that I was meant to trust this path, and go find Uganda.
