

Through Fields, Forests, And Mountains: Exploring the Magnificent Landscapes of Hungary and Romania

Picture yourself embarking on an awe-inspiring journey, surrounded by lush green meadows, dense forests, and majestic mountains. Hungary and Romania, two countries located in Eastern Europe, offer a breathtaking landscape that will leave you mesmerized. With their rich history, vibrant culture, and diverse natural wonders, these lands beckon adventurers seeking unforgettable experiences.

Unveiling the Beauty of Hungary

Hungary, with its vibrant capital Budapest, is a gateway to Eastern Europe's stunning landscapes. Start your exploration by wandering through the picturesque countryside, where you will encounter sunflower fields stretching as far as the eye can see. The vibrant yellow blooms against the backdrop of rolling hills create a captivating sight.

As you delve deeper into Hungary's countryside, you will stumble upon vast forests teeming with wildlife. The soothing rustle of leaves and the chirping of birds will accompany your journey. Don't miss the opportunity to hike through the Borsodi-Mezőség National Park, where ancient oaks and rare plant species flourish.

Make your way to the Hortobágy National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that will leave nature enthusiasts breathless. This expansive grassland and wetland area is home to numerous species of birds, including the iconic Hungarian grey cattle egret. Immerse yourself in the soothing embrace of nature as you witness the graceful flight of these magnificent creatures.

For a unique experience, set your sights on Lake Balaton, often referred to as the "Hungarian Sea." The largest lake in Central Europe offers a wide range of activities, from sailing and swimming to picturesque bike rides along its beautiful shores. Let the mesmerizing sunset over the tranquil waters cast a spell on you.

Adventures in the Romanian Wilderness

As you venture into Romania, prepare to be enchanted by its untamed landscapes and wild beauty. Begin your journey in Transylvania, known for its captivating castles perched on hillsides and the legendary Dracula's Castle. Trace the footsteps of history as you explore medieval towns, such as Brasov and Sibiu, immersed in their medieval charm.

Continue your adventure by heading to the Carpathian Mountains, a haven for nature lovers and thrill-seekers alike. Hike through dense forests, where mystical legends weave themselves into the whispers of the wind. In the heart of these ancient mountains lies the breathtaking wonder of the Retezat National Park, home to a variety of flora and fauna.

Embark on a mesmerizing journey through the Danube Delta, a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve that boasts a vibrant ecosystem. Cruise along the winding waters, where countless bird species find refuge. Let the serene atmosphere engulf you as you witness the dance of nature unfolding before your eyes.

No trip to Romania would be complete without exploring the enchanting region of Maramures. Known for its traditional wooden churches and authentic rural lifestyle, this area will transport you back in time. Immerse yourself in the local culture and witness the intricate craftsmanship of the famous Maramures wooden gates.

Through fields, forests, and mountains, Hungary and Romania offer an unforgettable journey for those seeking to immerse themselves in the beauty of nature. This is the first book written in English about two of Eastern Europe's premier hunting destinations. The book is animated by the author's desire to share this little-known sporting paradise with educated hunters. The chapters detail game he has hunted over the past three decades, including stag, boar, roebuck, bear, wolf, chamois, capercaillie, pheasants, mouflon sheep, and ducks in areas that regularly produce world-class trophies and yet remain unknown to even the most experienced hunters. The hunting culture and traditions of Romania and Hungary, which figured so prominently in the Austro-Hungarian Empire, profoundly influenced the development of European, and international, hunting. By sharing the latest facts about the finest hunting areas, hunting seasons, and firearms and equipment, the author hopes to awaken an appreciation for all the best that Hungary and Romania offer sportsmen.

Skyhorse Publishing is proud to publish a broad range of books for hunters and firearms enthusiasts. We publish books about shotguns, rifles, handguns, target shooting, gun collecting, self-defense, archery, ammunition, knives, gunsmithing, gun repair, and wilderness survival. We publish books on deer hunting, big game hunting, small game hunting, wing shooting, turkey hunting, deer stands, duck blinds, bowhunting, wing shooting, hunting dogs, and more. While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller, we are committed to publishing books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked by other publishers and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home.
