When Petra Baron entered the fortuneteller's tent at her school's Renaissance fair, she expected to come out with a date to the prom. Instead, Petra got the shock of her life when she walked out into Elizabethan England. Here, she meets a demon dog, a couple of gypsies, and a kindred spirit named Emory Ravenswood.

Emory must thwart the plans of religious zealots. Although Emory is on Heaven's errand, he learned long ago that Heaven does not always play fair. His mission is dangerous, his enemies are fanatical, and Petra Baron is a complication that - Heaven knows - he does not need. Or does he?

As Petra slowly falls for Emory, she wonders if he really is who he seems, or if he is just as lost as she is. How can they have a future while trapped in the past? Throughout their journey, they both begin to wonder Time and Again what is truly possible?

Time and Again is the first book in USA Today bestselling author Katie Tate's The Time Chronicles. Fans of Diana Gabaldon's Outlander who love time travel can enjoy clean and wholesome young adult romance in this time-twisted coming of age story.
