Today, Your Prince Has Come

Alex loves Jenna, but Jenna just wants to be friends. Christi's on the outs with her BFF, whose brother wants to be more than friends. Is even pixie dust enough to sort it all out?

In 1987, Christi has no plans for what she'll do after high school. She takes her best friend, Stacy, with her for one last childhood trip to Disneyland, but then Stacy abandons her and she's left with Stacy's brother, Troy, who has never said two words to her.

In 2015, Jenna's parents—who work at Disney and love the company possibly more than they love their own daughter—take her to Walt Disney World, along with Jenna's best friend, Alex, who has just confessed to her his undying love, which she can't return.

Two trips, no magic.

Set entirely in Disneyland and Walt Disney World, Finding Fantasyland is more than just finding your way around a theme park: it's about finding who your friends really are, finding what makes life worth living, and finding who it's worth living it with.

First-time author Stephanie Estrada weaves a powerful spell that will pull at your heart. What connects Christi and Jenna over the decades? Will they learn that fantasy is a fraud, and that "happily ever after" has no power past childhood?

Some hearts a Dole Whip can't mend.
