To the one I trust most (you know who you are).

Yes, I know that I told you that you would never see me again, but I must ask one final favor. You see, I made a promise many years ago that I could not follow through with until now. I am sending you a story, the first of seven. Guard them with your life lest they be delivered into the wrong hands.

Our story begins when a young boy takes flight into the stars, only to fall on the forgotten planet of Earth. Here, he meets the Last Human, and the monsters his people ran away from.

With only this stranger to guide him, he must travel through a labyrinth riddled with secrets, a hidden city with danger around every corner, an old theatre whose tales ring truth, and finally, a factory beneath the surface where a plan has been set in motion more malevolent than any scheme before it.
