I kissed so many people today, I didn't think I would want another kiss in my life. Joey Montgomery, a simple and shy girl, was forced to volunteer at the carnival her mother's elite country golf club had organized. Her job? Just taking in-charge of the kissing booth and being paid to kiss random strangers. In every kiss, Joey was either feeling neutral or utterly disgusted. But everything else didn't matter when the most popular girl in town paid a visit to the booth to get a kiss from her. Olivia Winchester, a bold and outgoing bisexual gal, went to the carnival with her friends. There, she met the girl whom she has never noticed before; the girl who made her feel a rollercoaster ride of emotions; the girl whom she had shared a kiss with. What's in store for Joey and Olivia after that one kiss? Will it ignite a spark between them? Will it bring them closer?
