The Magic of Lima

Lima, the beating heart of Peru, is a city like no other. From its coastal cliffs overlooking the Pacific Ocean to its vibrant culinary scene that rivals any worldwide, Lima offers a unique blend of ancient traditions and modern urbanism. This cosmopolitan capital is home to over 9 million residents, each contributing to its infectious energy and charm.

Known as the "City of Kings," Lima was founded by the Spanish conquistador Francisco Pizarro in 1535. Its rich history can be witnessed in the historic city center, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that boasts stunning colonial architecture, beautifully preserved palaces, and impressive churches.

The Perfect Itinerary for Your Days in Lima

To ensure that you make the most of your time in Lima, Chris Backe has crafted the perfect itinerary for you. Here's a sneak peek at what your days in Lima could look like:

Day 1: Exploring the Historic Center

Start your journey by immersing yourself in the rich history of Lima's Centro Historico. Begin at the Plaza de Armas, the city's main square, where you can admire the beautifully preserved colonial architecture. Visit the Government Palace and witness the Changing of the Guard ceremony before exploring the stunning interiors of the Lima Cathedral and the Archbishop's Palace.

Continue your exploration with a visit to the Santo Domingo Convent, a magnificent example of Baroque architecture. Don't miss the chance to descend into the catacombs, where you can witness the eerie beauty of the bone-filled corridors.

Day 2: Miraflores, Culinary Delights, and Artistic Wonders

Head to the trendy district of Miraflores, where you can enjoy breathtaking views of the Pacific Ocean from the Miraflores Boardwalk. Indulge in Lima's renowned gastronomy at one of the countless cevicherias or try the ever-popular anticuchos, a traditional Peruvian street food.

After satisfying your taste buds, explore the Larco Museum, home to an extensive collection of pre-Columbian artifacts. Marvel at the vibrant pottery, intricate jewelry, and masterful textiles that offer a glimpse into Peru's ancient civilizations.

Day 3: Barranco, Street Art, and Local Culture

End your Lima adventure in the bohemian neighborhood of Barranco. Take a leisurely stroll along the Bajada de los Baños, a charming walkway lined with colorful colonial houses. Admire the vibrant street art that adorns the neighborhood's walls and immerse yourself in the local art scene by visiting the Mario Testino Museum or one of the many galleries showcasing contemporary Peruvian artists.

As the sun sets, make your way to the iconic Bridge of Sighs, where you can capture breathtaking views of the Pacific Ocean and experience the romantic atmosphere that fills the air.
